

NSBA Riders With Disabilities-Disclaimer

The NSBA Affiliate, Show Committee and all participants, spectators and others, acknowledge that because these rules have been established on the basis of experience and fairness to all who are interested in the betterment of the pleasure horse competitions, the NSBA assumes no liability for any injuries, damage or claims of whatever nature from any Affiliate, Show Committee, participant or spectator or other person arising out of performance conducted under the NSBA Handbook.

Show management is responsible for the condition of the show premises, including arena and exercise areas: the conduct and competence of show employees and other representatives; implementation of show activities; and all other aspects of this show.

As an express condition of the privilege to participate at an NSBA approved show or event, each owner of an NSBA horse, exhibitor, trainer, participant, assumes the risks of participation and release and discharge NSBA, its officers, directors, representatives and employees from any and all liability, whenever or however arising, as to personal injury or property damage occurring as a result of any participation or attendance in or at an event conducted by the show or on the grounds thereof.

Each member, horse owner, or others involved in participating in NSBA approved events is charged with the ultimate responsibility to determine the eligibility of persons exhibiting his/her horses by contacting NSBA regarding the current list of suspended or disciplined persons before authorizing such participation.

NSBA may film all owners, trainers and exhibitors, together with all horses participating in the various events of the show, as they participate in the events and other activities of the show, to compile NSBA publicity, instructional films or a telecast of the event, as it determines. Furthermore, from time to time, NSBA receives requests from various sources for permission to film and/or photograph the show to be used in the development of instructional materials. This includes class performances, both preliminary and final.
