Founded in 2005, Partners For Progress NFP (PFP) continues to evolve with the ever-changing world of dynamic abilities. As a scholastic, therapeutically goal-oriented program, PFP works endlessly to aide individuals to achieve their greatest independent potential.

Their goal-oriented therapy programs and tracking processes assist participants in overcoming fears, breaking down walls, and achieving monumental milestones through the hierarchy of development, community engagement, and quality of life. By providing high quality care through best practices therapeutic interventions, opportunities for inclusivity throughout the life span can be discovered and implemented.

Partners For Progress supports a National Trailing Show team that participates in competition with the National Saddle Bit Association (NSBA) and the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA). PFP is the only therapeutic riding center within the states of Illinois and Wisconsin with such a team. Additionally, a Special Olympics riding team is supported. Team members participate in the PFP Therapeutic Sports Riding program.

Once the horse has been checked in and enters the designated warm-up area, training equipment will no longer be allowed.

Conflicts

In the event that a horse or exhibitor is entered in two or more classes in separate arenas that have a potential to be showing at the same time, the Arena Coordinator and back gate staff must be notified by filing a Class Conflict Form with each arena at least one class prior to the conflict.

In the event that the judge submits an overall placing card, show management will transfer the Limited division to the appropriate card so long as the classes are placed separately for point tabulation and recording. A misty, golden-hour landscape with trees and a fence. The scene is bathed in warm, low light, creating a soft, ethereal atmosphere. In the foreground, a dark wooden fence runs across the frame. The background is filled with dense trees, some of which are partially obscured by a light mist or fog. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.
