The terms in the Conditions of Sale, Consignment Form, Consignment Contract, and Notice to Consignors govern the sale. Any disputes or conditions not specifically covered by the aforementioned documents will be governed by actions of the Sale Management and all decisions will be final.

This contract is entered into between the Seller (consignor) and the National Snaffle Bit Association, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the Sale Management). Consignors may designate an Authorized Agent to act on their behalf by completing the required Authorized Agent form and submitting it to the Sale Management no later than 24 hours before the start of the sale. The term Consignor will be synonymous with the term Owner.

1. Consigned yearlings must be enrolled in the Breeders Championship Futurity and/or Color Breeders Championship Futurity.
2. All consignments are subject to acceptance by the Sale Management and consignment fees for accepted yearlings are non-refundable. Sale Management will refund the consignment fees for yearlings that are not accepted into the sale. Consignment fees of $650 are available for consignors tendering cash or checks drawn on American banks with this signed Consigned Contract by June 1, 2023. There will be a convenience fee for consignments paid by credit card. Foreign checks must be payable in US funds. Consignments received after June 1, 2023 will only be accepted if the sale is not full with a $100 late fee.
3. Due to the limited number of consignments accepted the following consignment policies will be adhered to.
 - a. Limit of five consigned yearlings per owner/legal entity/family member in the same household.
 - b. Any yearling that has been transferred after March 1st of the sale year is subject to review.
4. Check-In protocol for received consignment contracts:
 - a. Entries will be accepted beginning February 15th and will close June 1st.
 - b. Entries with all required documents (excluding pending breed papers) and full payment will be accepted before entries with missing documents and/or payment.
5. The consignor warrants that any signature or information given on any document pertaining to this consignment is proper and correct.
6. An 8% commission of the final bid recognized by the auctioneer for each yearling will be paid to the Sale Management in addition to the consignment fee. This commission will be deducted from the consignor's sale proceeds.
7. The consignor may withdraw the consigned yearling, without penalty, upon presentation of a veterinary certificate to the Sale Management stating that a consigned yearling has died or suffers from a specific condition rendering it unfit for sale. In addition, should Sale Management consider a yearling unfit for auction after the consigned yearling arrives at the sale premises the Sale Management reserves the right to withdraw such consignment from the sale. The consignment fee will be forfeited for all withdrawals.
8. Consignor agrees that if a consigned yearling is privately sold or withdrawn at consignor's request, substitute consignments will be accepted until July 20, 2023. Consignor will tender to Sale Management an additional fee of $350 with each substitution. Substitution fees for NSBA sponsors will be $100. If the consignor fails to present any consigned yearling for any reason other than stated in paragraph 7 or substituted as discussed above, the consignor forfeits the consignment fee and agrees to pay the Sale Management on demand a fee of 8% of sale price if sold or $2000 whichever is greater as liquidated damages, not as a penalty. Once the catalog has been indexed from the pedigree researcher no additions or changes will be made except for substitutions by an original consignor.
9. If the consignor elects to purchase their consigned yearling, the consignor/authorized agent must be the final bidder and sign the Acknowledgement of Purchase form. An 8% commission and a 5% buyers premium of the final bid will apply to all buy backs.
10. The consignor agrees to have all consigned yearlings physically present on the sale premises no later than 24 hours before the start of the sale. The consignor further agrees that all consigned yearlings will be physically presented in the auction arena as designated by order of sale. Responsibility for getting yearlings to and from the auction arena is that of the consignor.
11. The consignor is the sole responsible party for the safety and well-being of the consigned yearling until the Acknowledgement of Purchase form is signed by the final bidder.
12. In the event that a purchaser fails to accept responsibility for a purchase and every effort has been made to sell the yearling as stated in the Conditions of Sale, the consignor agrees that Sale Management is not liable for any deficit in the sale price. Should the immediate resale be impossible or impractical, the consignor agrees to receive the yearling back as unsold without attaching any liability to the Sale Management. At no time does the Sale Management have a pecuniary interest in the consigned yearling.

13. The Sale Management is the contractor in this transaction between the purchaser and consignor and does not assume any responsibility for the collection of the purchase price other than as established in the Terms of Settlement as defined in the Conditions of Sale. In the event that the sale of any yearling is not consummated by reason of default by the purchaser, the Sale Management will not be liable for the purchase price of the yearling. The Sale Management does not guarantee the validity, enforceability, payment or collection of any instrument delivered to the Sale Management by the purchaser in payment of the purchase price of any yearling. In the event purchaser files, a written notice of rejection in accordance with the Conditions of Sale, settlement will be consistent with said document.
14. The Sale Management will determine the order of sale of all yearlings as defined in the Conditions of Sale, assign stabling facilities subject to the Sale Management's discretion, and change the time, date, or location should any unforeseen circumstances necessitate.

Submission of You Tube or video links, and at least one camera-ready photograph is encouraged. Decisions regarding the selection and use of the submitted photographs are reserved by the Sale Management.
16. An original health certificate (one yearling per certificate) dated no earlier than thirty (30) days prior to the sale date and an original negative Coggins test dated no earlier than six (6) months prior to the sale date must be provided to the Sale Management at the time of check in at the Sale Management office.
17. Providing all necessary and required documents are in order and the buyer has not stopped payment on their check or otherwise failed to pay for the yearling for any other reason Sale Management will send Registration Certificates to the breed association for transfer and payment to consignors will begin. Remittance of net proceeds to Owner/Consignor from Sale Management will be processed no earlier than ten (10) banking days after the sale.
18. I understand that the terms of this Sale Contract, the Conditions of Sale and Settlement Procedures published in the Sale Catalog will govern the sale of each yearling, and I hereby approve the same and agree to be bound. I further understand that Sale Management will govern any disputes or conditions not specifically covered by the Consignors Contract, Conditions of Sale, or Settlement Procedures, and all decisions by Sale Management shall be final.
19. This agreement will be binding on my heirs, personal representatives, successors, permitted assigns, the undersigned, and any successor in ownership of each yearling and will inure to the benefit of your successors and assigns.
20. The Sale Management does not warrant or guarantee the authenticity of, or validity of any statements relating to genetic defects ~~such as~~ including but not limited to HYPP or and HERDA.

FOURTH - LIMITED WARRANTIES: Any yearling(s) unsound in eyes or mouth, (including but not limited to: "cribbers," "wind suckers," "cryptorchids," "ridgling", etc.) or displaying any other defect, must be so announced. Consignor/Agent further agrees to disclose if said horse is being administered any medication(s). Veterinary services are available to bidders; each bidder is encouraged to conduct such inspection and examination of each yearling prior to bidding. The Consignor of each yearling represents and warrants to the buyer that the yearling is free from all adverse claims to ownership, use or possession. The Consignor sells each yearling without warranty and with all faults. In the event that any yearling is (a) not as represented in the Sale Catalog or, (b) breaches the foregoing limited warranty (c), or if the auctioneer fails to announce any modification to the Sale Catalog or limited warranty, the buyer shall file with the Sale Management a written notice rejecting the yearling. The written rejection is to include a veterinary notice certifying the conditions for rejection within twenty-four (24) hours after the close of the Sale or before removal of the yearling from the sale grounds, whichever is sooner. Upon Sale Management approval that the rejection is in the manner and within the time line provided, the buyer will return the yearling to the Consignor and Sale Management will refund to the buyer the full purchase price on behalf of the Consignor. In the event of any dispute between the buyer and the consignor, the Sale Management will occupy the position of agent for a disclosed principal and stakeholder. On delivery of any property or funds held by the Sale Management to the Court having jurisdiction of such dispute, there are no obligations by the Sale Management to the Consignor or the buyer. The Sale Management makes no representation or warranty with respect to any yearling and the buyer must look solely to the designated Consignor for recovery of any damage due to the failure of any representation or limited warranty.

SIXTH - CATALOG AND ANNOUNCEMENTS: The Consignors represent yearlings catalogued in this sale. Neither the Sale Management nor the auctioneer is responsible for the accuracy of information provided. The Consignor has provided all information other than that which is provided by a pedigree service. Notice to the Sale Management prior to the sale of any modification to the sale catalog or limited warranty is the responsibility of the consignor or its designated agent. Further it is expected the consignor or agent must make publicly and immediately known to the auctioneer the changes should there fail to be an appropriate announcement from the auction block prior to or during the sale of their yearling. It is the sole responsibility of the consignor or their designated agent to verify the accuracy of the information and to notify the auctioneer of any corrections.

SEVENTH - BIDDING PROCEDURE: All buyers must obtain a bidder's number prior to bidding. All buyers will present a valid driver's license and sign a statement of their acceptance to the Conditions of Sale. The person making the highest bid recognized by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. entitled Acknowledgment of Purchase for signature. It is the responsibility of the buyer to confirm the correct hip number and price before signing. Clearly print name and address, since this document is used for transfers, invoicing, and in publishing sale results. In the event the buyer does not sign the Acknowledgment of Purchase prior to commencement of bidding on the next lot offered, the buyer shall forthwith identify himself or herself to the auctioneer as the buyer and sign the Acknowledgment of Purchase. In the event that a person other than the recognized buyer or authorized agent signs the Acknowledgment of Purchase, such action shall not give the other person any right or title to the yearling. Immediately upon the auctioneer learning of the erroneous signing of the Acknowledgement of Purchase, he shall present the Acknowledgement of Purchase to the recognized buyer for signature. If the highest bidder fails to sign the Acknowledgement of Purchase immediately or otherwise fails to comply with the Conditions of Sale, or in the event of a mistake by the auctioneer, Sale Management reserves the option to resell the yearling and such resale shall terminate all obligations of Sale Management and the consignor to honor any prior bid.

EIGHTH - BIDDING DISPUTES: Should any dispute arise between or among two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall forthwith adjudicate the dispute, and his decision shall be absolute, final and binding on all parties. Bids received by personnel employed by the auctioneer or Sale Management have the same stature as bids received by the auctioneer. In case of dispute, the auctioneer will reopen the bidding for advance bids, and if there are no advance bids, the person recognized as the last bidder by the auctioneer is the buyer. Advance bidding shall be restricted to the disputing parties. Bidding is open to all if the bidding is below the level of the recognized bid at commencement of dispute. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

All risk of injury and responsibility for the yearling(s), including care for the yearling becomes the buyer's risk at that time. All consignment documents, including but not limited to registration papers, BCF certificate, and health certificate will be held until the buyer makes settlement as provided in Condition Ten (10) below. Upon settlement by the buyer, the yearling(s) will be released by Sale Management to the buyer or his or her authorized agent. Taking possession of the yearling by buyer or his or her authorized agent shall constitute release by Sale Management. Upon release, the buyer will remove the yearling from the sale premises by noon of the day following the sale, or make specific provisions with Sale Management. Removal of all yearlings from the sale ground is required no later than 6:00 pm CST August 20. In addition, should the purchaser fail to remove their yearling(s) in accordance with the conditions of the sale, the Sale Management may remove yearling(s) from the sale premises at the buyer's risk and expense.
